

Louisville Cities United Collaborative celebrates One Year Anniversary

Zones of Hope Initiative

LOUISVILLE (September 16, 2015) – This Saturday, September 19th Louisville Cities United Collaborative and its partners will celebrate the one year anniversary of the city's Zones of Hope initiative. Zones of Hope was launched by the Louisville Cities United Collaborative last year during the "Weekend of Hope" sponsored by the Casey Family Programs.

Zones of Hope is a comprehensive place-based strategy designed to create better outcomes for young black men and boys in the Russell, Newburg, Shawnee, California and Parkland neighborhoods. Lunch will be provided by YUM! Brands – Zones of Hope is supported by a generous grant from the James Graham Brown Foundation.

Dr. William C. Bell will appear as the Key Note Speaker for the one year Zones of Hope anniversary. Dr. Bell has received various awards for his work towards improving the living outcomes for children and youth.

Zones of Hope cordially invites you to the Day of Hope to hear about the latest updates. For more information please see this link <http://www.eventbrite.com/e/day-of-hope-zones-of-hope-1-year-anniversary-celebration-tickets-18321452959>
